VETERANS TO TWIRL

Adams and Weber Slated for Mound Duty—First Base-man Not Secured

By LARRY DAILY.
Led by Barney Cleveland, third baseman of the Oilers in 1919 and 1920, the Enid Western association club meets the Burkemore today and tomorrow at McNulty park in the final exhibition contests of the year here. Both games start at 4 o'clock.
The former Oiler infielder has gathered together a veteran club and the Burkemore will undoubtedly be contenders this season in their circuit.

Probably the only Indian battery in organized ball is with the Enid club. Jim Bluejacket, a former major league pitcher and Bill Newnham, who played with Oklahoma City in the old Western association and with Wichita of the Western league in 1919, form the redskin mound and man combination.

Several former Oilers are on the Enid club in addition to Cleveland. Upchurch and Cowan, pitchers, and Clyde Wrenn, outfielder, received trial here last spring.

Jimmy Burke will use veteran pitchers today. Karl Adams and Rudy Weber are slated for mound duty. The balance of the team will start as in previous games, with only one position left field, uncertain. Davis or Lowrance are considered for the left field assignment, with the possibility that Edwin might play.
